PELVIC FLOOR TRAINING PROGRAMME IN 5 STEPS

An effective treatment with only 20 min/daily exercises

- ① Aids attachments to the vaginal walls
- ② Angles designed for the pelvis muscles
- ③ Ergonomically shaped to ease insertion

100% Extra-soft Silicone

A completely natural treatment based on exercising the pelvic floor muscles with gradually heavier weights. PELVIX creates a natural stimulus that causes a reflex action in the pelvis to counteract gravity.

PELVIX has been designed after exhaustive research in collaboration with gynaecologists and urologists into the constitution of the pelvic floor muscles and the organs involved in the working of those muscles, such as the vagina, the urethra and the rectum.

INTIMRELAX is indicated for treating atrophic vaginitis, dyspareunia and, in general, vaginal contraction, burning sensation and penetration difficulty.

It allows to do exercise and to progressively dilate the vaginal duct.

First of all, a small amount of water based lubricant should be applied to the entrance of the vagina (approximately a chestnut-sized amount) and it should be gently massaged for 2-3 minutes.

One session a day is enough (for 10 to 15 minutes).
