A COMPENDIUM OF CASUAL KNOWLEDGE

SLIPPERY WHEN WET

No matter what you do for Valentine's Day, we all know what you're hoping for at the end of the date. A smart guy stocks up on condoms and lube.

By Christine Colby

• Wicked Sensual Care.

“The whole selection of lubes is paraben-free, latex-friendly, nonsticky, and vegan. The line is extensive and offers something for everyone, but we have some favorites. The company claims that the Ultra line, despite being made of silicone, is compatible with most toy materials. The Wicked Jelle is a water-based lube made specifically for anal play. The stevia-sweetened flavored lubes come in subtle, grown-up flavors such as Mocha Java and Salted Caramel. Toy Love is a water-based, drip-free lube made specifically for use with your favorite dildos and vibrators. There are also products specifically designed for male masturbation and for cleaning your sex toys.”

Olive Leaf Extract

Enhancing every WICKED® AQUA product is a powerful anti-oxidant that helps moisturize, protect and heal the skin's surface. Olive Leaf Extract naturally eliminates harmful germs, protecting skin from transmitted viruses and bacteria as well as fungus and other parasites.

Because of its healing properties this ingredient is great for use on delicate, intimate skin and other areas of the skin that need extra care.
